

It was a quarter to twelve at night when Dr. Watson's doorbell rang. This could not be a visitor at so late an hour. A patient, evidently, and possibly an all-night sitting. With a wry face he went out into the hall and opened the door. To his astonishment it was Sherlock Holmes who stood upon the step.

That's when Watson was called onto the case of the crooked man. Using his awesome powers of observation and deduction he seeks out the clues and solves the case. Match wits with the famous detective and see if you can solve the case before he does.
