

Make a Tongue Twister

Tongue twisters are sentences that are hard to say. This is usually because the same sound will start many of the words in the sentence. For example:

She sells sea shells by the sea shore.

Or

Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Now it's your turn to create a tongue twister. Finish each of the sentences below to make a tongue twister.

1. Did Dad _____
2. Shelly's shoes _____
3. Why won't _____
4. _____ poured paste _____
5. Carry carried _____
