

HOW MARY GOT A NEW DRESS

A Tale of the South

A LearningIsland.org
Tale of Old

Mary lived a long time ago. She was a little girl when your great-great-grandmother was a little girl.

Mary lived in a big house in the south. Her parents grew cotton with the help of many slaves. There were field slaves and house slaves. Three of Mary's favorite slaves were house slaves named Aunt Dinah, Aunt Chloe and Aunt Dilsey.

Read the story of how Mary's new dress was made; from the slaves who picked the cotton, the weaving of the cloth, and the making of the dress.

Non-Fiction
RL: 3.4
Words: 641