

There were once two brothers who set out to seek their fortune. They wasted their time and their money in all sorts of foolish ways, and before long they were nearly penniless.

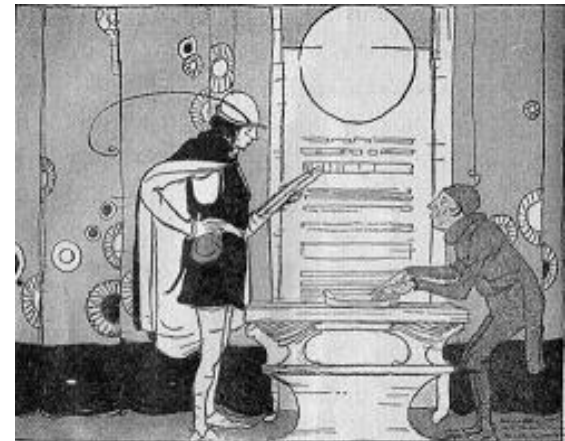

After the two brothers had been gone some time, their younger brother, who had always been thought the simpleton of the family, set out to seek his fortune.

Find out how each of the brothers makes their way in the world.

Fiction
RL: 4.8
Words: 1040

THE THREE TASKS

By The Brothers Grimm

A LearningIsland.org
Tale of Old