

Two Strike was a Sioux warrior well known among his people. Though he was shy, especially around pretty, young Indian maidens, he was a noted warrior.

As a youth, he joined in a one-shot-to-kill buffalo hunt. In this contest a brave is allowed one arrow to shoot and kill a buffalo. This means riding directly into the herd so you can get close enough to fell a running buffalo. In one such contest, Two Strike was able to kill two buffalo with a single arrow, saving the life of his own father.
